

ICT FOR A GLOBAL SUSTAINABLE FUTURE

How ICT can durably contribute to the wellbeing of all citizens around the world

International Conference
European Commission – Brussels
January 22 – 23, 2009

Biography

Opening addresses

Master of Ceremony: Sally Reynolds
Day 1 - January 22, 2009

Maria da Graça CARVALHO is Principal Adviser to the Bureau of European Policy Advisers, a Department of the European Commission reporting directly to the President. She coordinates the Societal group, including the areas of Science, Higher Education, Innovation, Research Policy, Energy, Environment and Sustainable Development and Social Policy.

She is a Full Professor at Instituto Superior Técnico (Technical University of Lisbon) and she has a 20 years research experience in the areas of energy, environment and sustainable development. In 1983 she obtained her Ph.D. at the Imperial College in London. She was the founder of a research group of 50 people at Instituto Superior Técnico (IST) in the Energy, Environment and Sustainable Development fields.

She was Minister of Science and Higher Education of the XV Constitutional Government of Portugal and Minister of Science, Innovation and Higher Education of the XVI Constitutional Government, Director-General of GRICES-Office for International Relations in Science and Higher Education and Deputy President of the Portuguese Association of Engineers. She was a member of the Board of Directors President of the Scientific Board of Instituto Superior Técnico (Technical University of Lisbon). She is a member of 22 national and international scientific associations and fellow of AIAA-American Institute of Aeronautics and Astronautics and of AAAS-American Association for the Advancement of Science. She was decorated by the President of Portugal with the designation “Great Official of the Order of Public Instruction” within the scope of International Women Day Programme (8 March 2002) and by the Chancellery of the International Order of Merit of the Discoverer of Brazil with the high honour of the Great Cross (26 April 2005).