

ICT FOR A GLOBAL SUSTAINABLE FUTURE

How ICT can durably contribute to the wellbeing of all citizens around the world

International Conference
European Commission – Brussels
January 22 – 23, 2009

Biography

Session I: Sustainable future: initiatives funded by the European Commission
Session chair: Jacques Babot
Day II - January 23, 2009

Team leader at the European Commission DG Info F4 (New infrastructure paradigms and experimental facilities FIRE (Future Internet Research and Experiments)).

Principal Administrator, since 1990 at the European Commission, M. Babot is now responsible for IPv6, experimental facilities and international activities in the unit "New infrastructure paradigms and experimental facilities FIRE, in the context of the research and development programme (ICT Information society and technology initiated by the European Union).

Previously at France telecom as Telecommunication Engineer (International affairs).

During 10 year M. Babot was responsible of a Unit in charge of transfer of know how in exploitation and maintenance of telecom complex equipment's for developing and emerging countries.

Education

University "Pierre et Marie Curie" from Paris
Master of Physics Telecom Engineer diploma from the "Institut National des Telecommunications" from Paris