

ICT FOR A GLOBAL SUSTAINABLE FUTURE

How ICT can durably contribute to the wellbeing of all citizens around the world

International Conference
European Commission – Brussels
January 22 – 23, 2009

Biography

Session II: Future directions for EU ICT research
Session chair: Fabrizio Sestini
Day II - January 23, 2009

Dr Ian Brown is a senior research fellow at the Oxford Internet Institute. His research is focused on privacy and information security; networked systems; and healthcare informatics. He is Principal Investigator of Privacy Value Networks and Towards a Future Internet; Co-Investigator of Fair Tracing, Privacy Open Space, e-Curator and Future Data Protection; and on the ethics board of VOTES.

Since 1998 Dr Brown has variously been a director of Privacy International, the Open Rights Group and the Foundation for Information Policy Research and an adviser to Greenpeace, Amnesty International and Creative Commons UK. He is a Fellow of the Royal Society of Arts and the British Computer Society, and has consulted for the US Department of Homeland Security, JP Morgan, Credit Suisse, Allianz, McAfee, BT, the BBC, the European Commission and the UK Information Commissioner's Office. In 2004 he was voted as one of the 100 most influential people in the development of the Internet in the UK over the previous decade.